

POPS & PASTRIES 2008-SECURITY

This year we did not have any problems, everyone was well behaved.

Volunteers: There were sign-up sheets at back to school night in the band room. We had four volunteers sign-up, three actually were able to help. Ron Mack recruited two more people. We had a total of seven.

Parent volunteers: Harry Bassett, Laurie Wilson-Murphy, Bruce Richter, Richard Rochte, John Gallagher, Ron Mack, and Don Wrona

Scheduling: Make sure you know when the volunteers children are performing, so the parents can watch their children . Double check the order of performance with Mr. Cleveland before making your schedule. Intermissions between performances make it easy to tell when the next volunteer's shift is.

Mr. Cleveland hired three security guards for the evening One on duty in the band room, one in the cafeteria, and one walking the halls. They also walked the parking lots.

This year we again had one parent in the cafeteria, with at least two parents walking the halls. We ask the parents to check the band room at least once during their shift, as well as the bathrooms and outside the doors so the kids do not gather in either of these places.

Don Wrona